

LTC Michael M. Goglia was born on Long Island, NY, grew up in Nashua, NH, and graduated from Norwich University with an ROTC commission in 2007 as a 2LT in Air Defense Artillery.

His assignments include Platoon Leader in D/5-52 AMD at Fort Bliss, TX and one year deployed to the Kingdom of Bahrain. After completing his assignment at Fort Bliss as 11th ADA Brigade Assistant S3, he was assigned to 1-1 ADA in Okinawa, Japan. While in Okinawa, he served as the BN FDC OIC, Assistant S3, and Bravo Battery Commander. After Japan, LTC Goglia moved to Camp Hovey in the Republic of Korea in 2014 where he served as ADAM Cell OIC for 1st ABCT/2nd Infantry Division. He then served as the FMS Manager for USMTM in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. After promotion to Major, he moved to the island of Oahu, Hawaii and was assigned for three years as a senior ADAFCO and Chief of Current Operations. In 2021, following 18 months of COVID-19 operations, he moved to Fort Sill where he served two years as the 3-6 ADA BN S3, also executing Operation Allies Welcome at Fort Pickett, VA and the first Patriot Training Classes for the Ukrainian Armed Forces at Fort Sill. He then served one year in 94th AAMDC's Forward Coordination Element at Osan Air Base, Republic of Korea. LTC Goglia has served collectively 10 years OCONUS during his career.

LTC Goglia's civilian education includes a Bachelor's from Vermont's Norwich University in Criminal Justice and a Master's from Chicago's DePaul University in Business. His military schooling includes the Joint Firepower course, ADAFCO course, and the Defense Security Cooperation Agency's Security Cooperation Officer (KSA) course. Among other awards and decorations, he is a recipient of the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Joint Meritorious Unit Award, and Colonel Patterson Tactics Award.

LTC Goglia was raised by his Mother Robbie and Father Matthew, along with younger sister Anne. He is married to Alicia Casillas for 15 years who together have 8-year-old daughter Elouise.