MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Policy Letter 12 – Schools Record APFT

1. Requiring that all Non-Commissioned Officer Professional Development System (NCOPDS) candidates meet the standards established in FM 7-22 and AR 600-9 by passing the APFT and meeting height and weight standards is key to ensuring quality future leadership for the Army.
2. All NCOPDS candidates within the Battalion will be administered a record APFT and height/weight by the Battalion Operations section no later than 14 and no earlier than 30 days prior to their respective class start date.
3. All NCOPDS candidates that do not pass the APFT and/or meet the height/weight standards established in AR 600-9 will be flagged by their respective Battery Commander and then processed for deferment from the course.
4. The POC for this memorandum is SFC Riley, Robert Battalion Operations NCOIC at 580-558-0129 or robert.e.riley.mil@mail.mil.
