SUBJECT: Policy Letter #2: Equal Opportunity Program

b. The Battalion Equal Opportunity Leader (EOL) has direct access to me at all times regarding EO matters. The chain of command is the primary channel for EO complaints and is responsible for addressing discriminatory practices. Soldiers should attempt to resolve EO complaints through their respective unit EOL(s) and/or chain of command. Soldiers do have the right to go to the Battalion EOL or bring their grievance directly to me via the provisions of my Open Door Policy (Policy Letter #1). If a Soldier wants to file a formal EO complaint, that will be done through the Brigade EO Advisor.

c. I expect every Commander, Leader, and Soldier to take swift and positive steps to help stop bias behaviors and discriminatory practices by identifying problems or potential problems and exercising their moral obligation to intervene. This can be done through positive, visible, and involved leadership.

d. Any attempts to suppress, restrain, interfere with, or coerce an individual who desires to file a complaint will not be tolerated. Acts of reprisal against a complainant will not be tolerated.

e. I expect all units to be in accordance with all EO training requirements (quarterly and annually) and maintain no less than 100% trained/readiness.

f. Unit Commanders will establish a similar policy within their units, briefing each Soldier on the provisions and conditions of the policy during the Soldier's Initial Unit Orientation.

5. A copy of this policy will be permanently posted on unit bulletin boards. Unit Commanders will ensure each Soldier is briefed on the provisions and conditions of this policy during the Soldier's initial unit orientation.
