MEMORANDUM FOR Non-Initial Entry Training (N-IET) Students attending the 13B1O Advanced Individual Training

SUBJECT: 13B1O Advanced Individual Training Welcome Letter

1. On behalf of the Commander and First Sergeant of Charlie Battery, 1st Battalion, 78th Field Artillery, congratulations on being selected to become a member of the Army's most lethal branch. Our mission is to provide you with a foundation of skills and knowledge to become a combat ready Soldier qualified in the Field Artillery core competencies.
2. The 13B Advanced Individual (AIT) course is a rigorous six-week program designed to equip Soldiers with the foundational skills necessary to operate as effective members of a Field Artillery Section. Training includes instruction on radio communications, ammunition identification and handling, preventive maintenance on Artillery systems and support equipment, occupation procedures and howitzer crew drill. The course culminates in a live-fire exercise that validates each Soldier's ability to perform in a simulated combat environment.
3. Upon your arrival to Fort Sill, all TDY students will report to Charlie Battery's Senior Drill Sergeant office, located at BLDG 2436 Crane AVE, Fort Sill, OK, 73503 (580)442-2860. Students must report NLT the Friday prior to class start date. When reporting you must be in duty uniform. Students will bring physical copies of all specified documentation required for in-processing (see below). Prior to your report date you will still report to Charlie Battery's Senior Drill Sergeant office. If you arrive after hours report to BLDG 2429 CQ (580)442-5322. After in-processing you will be given further instructions from the Drill Sergeant on duty, as well as issued living quarters.
 - a. Students not stationed on Fort Sill will be authorized the use of the dining facilities on post seven days a week.
 - b. Students are encouraged to bring POV or get a unit provided rental vehicle. 1-78FA is not responsible for providing rental vehicle. While attending 13B AIT the only transportation provided (to chow and training areas) are buses with all IET students.
 - c. Students are not authorized to attend 13B AIT on temporary profile.
