

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
HEADQUARTERS, 95TH ADJUTANT BATTALION (RECEPTION)
BLDG 6002 EDWARDS STREET
FORT SILL, OKLAHOMA 73503

Dear Incoming Soldier:

Welcome to the "Soldiering Starts Here" Battalion and the Fort Sill-Lawton, Oklahoma Community. We are the Army's leading reception battalion comprised of disciplined, competent, ready, and resilient professionals that provide world-class support to Trainees, Warfighters, DA Civilians and Families committed to serve our Army and the Nation.

The 95th Adjutant General Battalion conducts RECBN processing, staging, Fitness Training Unit (FTU), and Reception Holding Unit (RHU) to provide processed and return to training Initial Military Training (IMT), Prior service (PS), and mobilization Soldiers for Basic Combat Training (BCT), Advanced Individual Training (AIT), English as a Second Language (ESL) Training, and mobilized units.

Simply, we prepare civilians so they can conduct follow on training. We are the first Command Teams, Staff, Drill Sergeants, DA Civilians, Officers, NCOs, and Soldiers that new trainees see, and our team is the First Impression of the United States Army set upon future Soldiers.

The Battalion Sponsorship Coordinator is Ms. Kelly McDonnell. She has lived at Fort Sill for several years and can provide a wealth of information to assist in your transition to the unit. Please keep her informed of your arrival plans and any questions.
