The Army Goes Rolling Along

The U.S. Army Song got its beginnings in the Philippines in 1908. Brigadier General (then Lieutenant) Edmund L. "Snitz" Gruber, an artillery officer, was stationed there with the 2nd Battalion, 5th Field Artillery and wrote it with the help of two fellow lieutenants. After hearing one of his section chiefs urge his drivers to "keep them (guns) rolling," he felt inspired; and quickly produced the lyrics and music to "The Caisson Song." Instantly popular, the song was soon adopted by the entire U.S. Field Artillery. Later, the song was given to legendary composer John Phillip Sousa; the resulting "U.S. Field Artillery March" became a blockbuster during World War I, selling about 750,000 copies. Despite two attempts by the Army to create an official song, nothing that was created seemed to make its mark. Finally in 1952, H.W. Arberg, the Music Advisor to the Army Adjutant General, adapted "The Caisson Song" to become the official U.S. Army song, "The Army Goes Rolling Along."

*March along, sing our song,
With the Army of the free.
Count the brave, count the true,
Who have fought to victory.*

We're the Army and proud of our name! We're the Army and proudly proclaim:

*First to fight for the right,
And to build the Nation's might,
And The Army Goes Rolling Along.
Proud of all we have done,
Fighting till the battle's won,
And the Army Goes Rolling Along!
Then it's Hi! Hi! Hey!
The Army's on its way.
Count off the cadence loud and strong!
For where e'er we go,
You will always know
That The Army Goes Rolling Along!*

1st Battalion, 22nd Field Artillery

The 22d Field Artillery Regiment was constituted on 18 May 1918 as Battery A, Separate Battalion of Mountain Artillery. The unit was organized at Corozal Canal Zone on 10 July 1918. The unit was redesignated on 1 July 1921 as Battery A, 22d Field Artillery. On 15 September 1921, the unit was inactivated in the Canal Zone. The unit was assigned to the 4th Division from 23 July 1929 until 7 December 1929. The battalion was then assigned to the 6th Division until 2 October 1939. On 13 January 1941, the unit was redesignated as Battery A, 22d Field Artillery Battalion. On 15 April 1941, the unit was activated at Pine Camp, New York. The unit was reorganized and redesignated as Battery A, 22d Armored Field Artillery Battalion. During this time, the battalion participated in the invasion of Normandy, the effort in Northern France, the campaign in the Ardennes-Alsace (the Battle of the Bulge), and the effort in Central Europe. The unit was converted and redesignated on 01 May 1946 as Troop A, 22d Constabulary Squadron, an element of the 14th Constabulary Regiment. The unit was inactivated on 20 May 1949 in Hersfeld, Germany; concurrently converted and redesignated as Battery A, 22d Armored Field Artillery Battalion. The battalion was assigned to the 4th Armored Division on 25 February 1953. The battalion was next activated on 15 June 1954 at Fort Hood, Texas. The unit was reorganized and redesignated 01 April 1957 as Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, 1st Howitzer Battalion, 22d Field Artillery and assigned to the 1st Armored Division. The unit was redesignated on 01 September 1971 as the 1st Battalion, 22d Field Artillery. The battalion was inactivated on 16 January 1988 in Germany and relieved from assignment to the 1st Armored Division. On 15 September 1996, the battalion was reactivated as the 1st Battalion, 22d Field Artillery within the Field Artillery Training Center, Fort Sill, Oklahoma with the formal ceremonies for the activation occurring on 11 October 1997. On 08 May 2008, the battalion reflagged as the 1st Battalion, 22nd Field Artillery within the 428th Field Artillery Brigade, Fort Sill, Oklahoma. During this time, it assumed the BOLC Phase II mission where it developed, trained and mentored the future junior officers of the Army. In that short amount of time the unit trained more than 8,000 second lieutenants from all branches of the Army. The battalion deactivated on 09 April 2010.

The Soldier's Creed & Warrior Ethos

The Soldier's Creed was first introduced by then Army Chief of Staff, General Shinseki, in June of 2003. It represents the concept that all Soldiers are prepared for combat and embody the Warrior Ethos that is contained within it. Chief of Staff of the Army, General Schoomaker, reemphasized the creed and demonstrated his commitment to our soldiers by stating, "No longer is a Soldier's value measured by how close he or she is to the front line -- there are no front lines on today's battlefield. Every Soldier is a warrior; every Soldier has to embody not only the Army Values every day but take to heart the Soldier's Creed and, most specifically right now, the Warrior Ethos."

---

I am an American Soldier.

I am a Warrior and a member of a team. I serve the people of the United States and live the Army Values.

I will always place the mission first.

I will never accept defeat.

I will never quit.

I will never leave a fallen comrade.

Warrior
Ethos

I am disciplined, physically and mentally tough, trained and proficient in my warrior tasks and drills.

I always maintain my arms, my equipment and myself.

I am an expert, and I am a professional.

I stand ready to deploy, engage, and destroy the enemies of the United States of America in close combat.

I am a guardian of freedom and the American way of life.

I am an American Soldier.

Staff Sergeant
Huckaby
Drill Sergeant
Battery C,
1st Battalion,
22nd Field Artillery

SSG Jamison Huckaby was born in Fayetteville, AR on 20 September 1996 and graduated high school in 2015. He joined the Army in 2015, enlisting as a Fire Direction Specialist (13D). He attended Basic Combat Training at Fort Jackson, SC

SSG Huckaby has been stationed at Fort Johnson, Louisiana, and Fort Sill, Oklahoma. He transferred units in Fort Sill from FORSCOM to TRADOC where he is currently serving as a Drill Sergeant. He has served a nine-month long rotation to the Republic of South Korea where he provided long range fires in assistance to the ROK Armed Forces(2021-2022).

Throughout his career, SSG Huckaby has served as a Fire Direction RTO, Advanced Party operations, AFATDS operator, Battery Fire Direction NCO, Battalion Fire Direction NCO, and Platoon Sergeant for a Battery Headquarters element. He is currently a Drill Sergeant at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. He enjoys training our nations youth and chewing bubble gum...and he's all out of bubblegum.

His military education includes Combat Lifesaver Course, Basic Leader Course, Advanced Leader Course(DHG), Equal Opportunity Leaders Course, Company Crew Master Gunner, and The United States Army Drill Sergeant Academy. Drill Sergeant Huckaby's decorations include: Army Commendation Medal(4), Army Achievement Medal(9), Army Good Conduct Medal(3), National Defense Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Medal, Army Service Ribbon, Overseas Service Ribbon, Korea Defense Service Medal, Non-Commissioned Officer Professional Development(2)

In September of 1964, the then CONARC (Continental Army Command)—created the Army's Drill Sergeant program at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. The concept was hugely successful and today produces the finest training cadre in the United States Armed Forces: the U.S. Army Drill Sergeant.

Today's Drill Sergeant is a Staff Sergeant or Sergeant First Class who faces one of the most demanding jobs in the Army: transforming a volunteer civilian into a Soldier. After being Department of the Army (DA) selected from the top 10 percent of their MOS, Drill Sergeants graduate from the nine-week Drill Sergeants School at Fort Jackson, South Carolina; highly motivated to train new soldiers.

A quick profile reveals that the vast majority of Drill Sergeants are extremely dedicated with a high sense of duty, are bright and articulate, and generally score on the extended scale of the Army Physical Fitness Test. These NCOs face 18-hour workdays in all conditions to ensure their soldiers meet the standards and wake up the next morning ready to begin again.

I am a Drill Sergeant.

I will assist each individual in their efforts to become a highly motivated, well-disciplined, physically and mentally fit Soldier capable of defeating any enemy on today's modern battlefield.

I will instill pride in all I train; pride in self, in the Army, and in country.

I will insist that each Soldier meets and maintains the Army standards of military bearing and courtesy, consistent with the highest traditions of the U.S. Army.

I will lead by example, never requiring a Soldier to attempt any task I would not do myself.

But first, last, and always I am an American Soldier, sworn to defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, both foreign and domestic.

I am a Drill Sergeant.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL
(RETIRED)
Kent Payne

Lieutenant Colonel (Retired) Kent Payne received his commission in the Air Force through Reserve Officer Training Corps upon his graduation from California State Polytechnic University. As a civilian pilot, he earned his ratings and licenses to become a commercial pilot, but his dream was to fly military jets. Upon entering active duty, he attended Air Battle Manager training then was assigned to the NORAD Alaska Region Air Defense Center. Two years later, he was selected to attend Air Force Undergraduate Pilot Training graduating from the Fighter/Bomber track.

He spent most of his career flying the B-1 Bomber (the B-One) including combat tours over Afghanistan in the opening minutes of Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan. He flew the first wave of strikes against Al Qaeda and Taliban forces in the opening minutes of the war. Subsequent deployments took him to both Iraq and Afghanistan where he integrated bomber operations with Soldiers and Marines on the tip of the spear in joint combat. He went on to Command an Operations Squadron in the 7th Bomb Wing, and he retired as the Deputy Commander- 7th Operations Group at Dyess Air Force Base Texas.

Since retirement from active duty, Lt Colonel (Retired) Payne has flown as a major airline pilot in wide-body aircraft on international and domestic routes. Additionally, He is the President of Black Mesa Advanced Fission, LLC headquartered in Evanston, Wyoming. His family-owned company is a contractor to the U.S. Army Futures Command, Development Command to manufacture prototype advanced electrical generations systems intended to reduce logistical requirements for deployed and in-garrison military operations. Their mission statement reads: "We are committed to equipping our military and to energy security and abundance for all people".

Lieutenant Colonel (Retired) Payne would like to congratulate and salute all of today's graduates and the cadre of soldiers who trained them. He is the proud father of Private First-Class Conner Payne who is graduating today.

Lieutenant John Robert Fox Medal of Honor Recipient

For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty: First Lieutenant John R. Fox distinguished himself by extraordinary heroism at the risk of his own life on 26 December 1944 in the Serchio River Valley Sector, in vicinity of Sommocolonia, Italy. Lieutenant Fox was a member of Cannon Company, 366th Infantry, 92nd Infantry Division, acting as a forward observer, while attached to the 598th Field Artillery Battalion.

Christmas Day in the Serchio Valley was spent in positions which had been occupied for some weeks. During Christmas night, there was a gradual influx of enemy soldiers in civilian clothes and by early morning the town was largely in enemy hands. An organized attack by uniformed German formations was launched around 0400 hours, 26 December 1944. Reports were received that the area was being heavily shelled by everything the Germans had, and although most of the U.S. infantry forces withdrew from the town, Lieutenant Fox and members of his observation party remained behind on the second floor of a house, directing defensive fires. Lieutenant Fox reported at 0800 hours that the Germans were in the streets and attacking in strength. He called for artillery fire increasingly close to his own position. He told his battalion commander, "That was just where I wanted it. Bring it 60 yards! His commander protested that there was a heavy barrage in the area and bombardment would be too close. Lieutenant Fox gave his adjustment, requesting that the barrage be fired. The distance was cut in half. The Germans continued to press forward in large numbers, surrounding the position. Lieutenant Fox again called for artillery fire with the commander protesting again stating, "Fox, that will be on you!" The last communication from Lieutenant Fox was. "Fire it! There's more of them than there are of us. Give them hell!"

The bodies of Lieutenant Fox and his party were found in the vicinity of his position when his position was taken. This action, by Lieutenant Fox, at the cost of his own life, inflicted heavy casualties, causing deaths of approximately 100 Germans, thereby delaying the advance of the enemy until infantry and artillery units could be reorganized to meet the attack. Lieutenant Fox's extraordinary valorous actions exemplify the highest traditions of the military service.
