1. Purpose. This pamphlet describes the structure, users and the proponent of Fish and Wildlife Informational Meetings.

2. Reference. Required and related publications; and, prescribed and referenced forms are listed in appendix A.

3. Explanation of Abbreviations and Terms. Abbreviations and terms used in this regulation are explained in the glossary.

4. Responsibilities.

a. Garrison Commander. Responsible for oversight of safe execution of the natural resources program on Fort Sill. This includes hunting and fishing.

b. Environmental Quality Division (EQD), Natural Resources and Enforcement Branch (NREB). Provide professional management and stewardship of natural resources at Fort Sill to achieve optimum use of training lands, promote biodiversity and ecosystem functionality, provide opportunities for multiple uses of natural resources and comply with environmental laws.

(1) The Natural Resources Administrator, as the proponent of this pamphlet, will host and lead the Fish and Wildlife Informational meetings and is responsible for all updates or termination as appropriate. This forum replaces the former fish and wildlife council.

(2) Use various avenues, including the Fish and Wildlife Informational Meeting, to facilitate information transfer to Soldiers, retirees and DoD Civilians assigned to Fort Sill of natural resources information including seasons, dates, hunting/fishing safety, conservation, management goals, volunteer needs and recreational opportunities.

(3) Host and lead Fish and Wildlife Informational Meetings from 1200 to 1300 on the second Tuesday of February, July and September.

c. Fort Sill Fishermen and Hunter Sponsor Permit Holders. Recreational opportunities are affected by changing human demographics, degrading manpower resources, range renovation, military missions, security, and changing fish and wildlife populations. Recreational opportunities occur within appropriate guidelines for safety, security, and natural resources management. Fort Sill recreational users, both military and civilian, have a vested interest and commitment to enhance recreational opportunities and educational outreach programs.

(1) Encouraged to attend Fishing and Wildlife Informational Meetings from 1200 to 1300 on the second Tuesday of February, July and September. Each sponsor permit holder is eligible to attend.

(2) To provide sound and reasonable suggestions as input to Natural Resources and Enforcement Branch with regard to the management of resources that support hunting and fishing on this installation. This is in no way a regulatory, legislative (no voting) or oversight role. Suggestions will be implemented as determined appropriate by NREB.

(3) Use this public forum to better understand and improve the effectiveness of their valuable role on Fort Sill. This includes learning of recreational opportunities, annual harvest needs and/or management goals, and specific ways to volunteer time and personal talents.

(4) Understand Fort Sill management goals, regulations, management challenges and needs. To use this knowledge to improve and personally promote good stewardship of Fort Sill Natural Resources.

(5) Attendance is not mandatory. Attendance is an opportunity to improve each other.
