Chapter 1 Introduction

- 1-1. Purpose. To establish procedures for utilizing the entitlement of travel and transportation of abused dependents relocating for reasons of personal safety.
- 1-2. Reference. Joint Travel Regulation (JTR) 5153 change Travel and Transportation for Dependent Relocating for Personal Safety, 1 October 2014, effective 1 October 2014.
- 1-3. Policy. A service member's spouse or the parent/court appointed guardian of a dependent child may request relocation for personal safety and may be authorized travel and transportation if it is determined that--
- a. The service member has committed a dependent-abuse offense against a dependent of the service member.
 - b. A safety plan and counseling have been provided to the dependent.
 - c. The dependent's safety is at risk.
 - d. Dependent relocation is advisable.

Chapter 2 Responsibilities

2-1. Unit Commanders. Unit commanders--

- a. Notify dependents, in writing, that they may apply for dependent travel and/or shipment of household goods at government expense (see Appendices A, B, and C) when a dependent abuse offense occurs and there is concern for the safety of the victim, para a. IAW the JTR par. 5153 A.1 (Appendix D). Notification will also include a referral to the Family Advocacy Program Domestic Abuse Victim Advocate (DAVA) for verification of authorizing conditions and assistance in accomplishing documentation.
- b. When requests for entitlements are received from a dependent and the Soldier's chain of command Concurs, the unit will prepare the Dependent Travel Authorization using their fund cite and appropriate signature authorities. Appendix E can be utilized as a guide to entitlements for the Dependent Travel Authorization. The Soldier's chain of command will submit the approved Dependent Travel Authorization with document in Appendix D to the Logistics Readiness Center (LRC), Transportation Division, Passenger Movements Branch, Bldg 4700, for action.

- c. Use command discretion regarding requests for military escorts to the receiving location. Commanders should utilize all available resources in making this decision, to include Family Advocacy Program Clinic, Domestic Abuse Victim Advocate (DAVA) and Staff Judge Advocate (SJA) personnel. Expenses incurred as a result of providing military escorts will be borne by the unit.
- 2-2. Army Community Service. Army Community Service, Family Advocacy Domestic Abuse Victim Advocate (DAVA) will--
- a. Provide a DAVA as a source of support and a resource to assist the client with negotiating the various resources.
- b. Provide a DAVA who will complete a memorandum of support, when warranted, for the command verifying that a safety plan has been initiated, the allegation has been reported, counseling has been offered, the client has been encouraged to go to Social Work Services at Reynolds Army Community Hospital for at least the initial interview, and the possibility of future violence is high (Appendix E) the new reference is JTR 5153 and in para B for Definitions of Dependent child, that reference is JTR 5153, para B.1

2-3. Transportation Branch. Passenger Movements Branch will—

a. Once the Dependent Travel Authorization is received, Passenger Movements Section will assist the dependents or unit representatives in making airline travel arrangements to designated location or will direct dependent to work with Household Goods Section and finance office for determination of other entitlements.

DANGER ASSESSMENT (DA2)

DANGER ASSESSMENT

Jacquelyn C. Campbell, PhD, RN, FAAN Copyright 2004 Johns Hopkins University, School of Nursing Corrections to calendar scale 2/3/2010

Several risk factors have been associated with increased risk of homicides (murders) of women and men in violent relationships. We cannot predict what will happen in your case, but we would like you to be aware of the danger of homicide in situations of abuse and for you to see how many of the risk factors apply to your situation.

Using the calendar, please mark the approximate dates during the past year when you were abused by your partner or ex partner. Write on that date how bad the incident was according to the following scale:

- 1. Slapping, pushing; no injuries and/or lasting pain
- 2. Punching, kicking; bruises, cuts, and/or continuing pain
- 3. "Beating up"; severe contusions, burns, broken bones
- 4. Threat to use weapon; head injury, internal injury, permanent injury, miscarriage, choking
- 5. Use of weapon; wounds from weapon

(If any of the descriptions for the higher number apply, use the higher number.)

Mark Yes or No for each of the following.

("He" refers to your husband, partner, ex-husband, ex-partner, or whoever is currently physically hurting you.)

Yes	No
		1.	Has the physical violence increased in severity or frequency over the past year?
		2.	Does he own a gun?
		3.	Have you left him after living together during the past year?
		_	3a. (If have never lived with him, check here)
-		4.	Is he unemployed?
		5.	Has he ever used a weapon against you or threatened you with a lethal weapon?
			5a. (If yes, was the weapon a gun?)
		6.	Does he threaten to kill you?
		7.	Has he avoided being arrested for domestic violence?
		8.	Do you have a child that is not his?
		9.	Has he ever forced you to have sex when you did not wish to do so?
		10.	Does he ever try to choke you?
		11.	Does he use illegal drugs? By drugs, I mean "uppers" or amphetamines, Meth, speed, angel dust, cocaine, "crack", street drugs or mixtures.
		12.	Is he an alcoholic or problem drinker?
		13.	Does he control most or all of your daily activities? (For instance: does he tell you who you can be friends with, when you can see your family, how much money you can use, or when you can take the car?
			(If he tries, but you do not let him, check here:)
		14.	Is he violently and constantly jealous of you?

6.	SAFETY WITH A PROTECTION ORDER. My abuser should obey protection orders, but I can never be sure. I recognize that I may need to ask the military or civilian police, the courts, and the military commanding officer to enforce my protection order. The following are some steps that I can take to help the enforcement of my protection order:
a.	I will keep my protection order at (location):
b.	I will always keep a copy of my protection order with me. If I change purses/wallets, that's the first thing that should go in.
c.	I will give a copy of my protection order to military and civilian police departments in the community where I work, in those communities where I usually visit family or friends, and in the community where I live.
d.	There may be a county registry of protection orders that all police departments can call to confirm a protection order. I will check to make sure that my order is in the registry. The telephone number for the county registry of protection orders is:
e.	For further safety, if I often visit other counties, I might file my protection order with the court in those counties. I will register my protection order in the following counties:
f.	I can call the domestic violence program if I am not sure about b., c., or d. above or if I have some problem with my protection order.
g.	I will inform my employer, my clergy person, my closest friends, and
L	that I have a protection order in effect.
h.	If my abuser destroys my protection order I can get another copy by going to located at:
i.	If my abuser violates my protection order, I can call the police and report a violation, contact my attorney, call my advocate, and/or advise the court of the violation.
j.	If law enforcement does not help, I can contact my advocate or attorney and will file a complaint with the chief of the law enforcement department.
k.	I can also file a private civil complaint in the jurisdiction in the U.S. where the violation occurred. I can charge my abuser with a violation of the protection order. (I can also ask if the jurisdiction where the violation occurred permits the filing of private criminal complaints.) I can call the domestic violence advocate to help me with this.
7.	SAFETY ON THE JOB AND IN PUBLIC. I must decide if and when I will tell others that my abuser is abusive and that I may be at continued risk. Friends, family and co-workers can all offer protection. I should carefully consider which people to invite to help secure my safety. I might do any or all of the following:
а.	I can inform my boss, the security supervisor, military commanding officer, senior enlisted advisor, andat work of my situation.
b.	I can ask to help screen my telephone calls at work.
	When leaving work, I can:
d.	When driving home, if problems occur, I can:
e.	If I use public transit, I can:
f.	I can use different grocery stores and shopping malls to conduct my business and shop at hours that are different than those when I was residing with my abuser.
g.	can use a different bank and take care of my banking at hours different from those I used when residing with my abuser.

 SAFETY AND DRUG OR ALCOHOL USE. Many people use alcohol. Many use mood-altering drugs. Some drugs are legal, others are not. The Department of Defense has a zero-tolerance policy for active duty members with regard to the use of illegal drugs, and there are Federal and State criminal laws addressing the use of illegal substances. Therefore, I should carefully consider the potential costs to my family and me if someone in my family is using illegal drugs. But beyond this, the use of any alcohol or other drugs can reduce my awareness and ability to act quickly to protect myself from my abuser. Alcohol or drug use may also affect the way my abuser responds to different situations. Therefore, in the context of drug or alcohol use, I need to make specific safety plans.
If drug or alcohol use has occurred in my relationship with my abuser, I can enhance my safety by some or all of the following:
a. If I am going to use alcohol, I can do so in a safe place and with people who understand the risk of violence and are committed to my safety.
b. I can also:
c. If my abuser is using, I can:
d. I might also:
e. To safeguard my children, I might:

SAFETY AND MY EMOTIONAL HEALTH. The experience of being battered and verbally degraded by abusers is usually exhausting and emotionally draining. The process of building a new life for myself takes much courage and incredible energy.
To conserve my emotional energy and resources and to avoid hard emotional times, I can do some of the following:
a. If I feel down and ready to return to a potentially abusive situation, I can:
b. When I have to communicate with my abuser in person or by telephone, I can:
c. I can try to use "I can" statements with myself and to be assertive with others.
d. I can tell myself: "
